Note: The registration for examinations is binding. The Presidium's decision of March 16, 2020 to withdraw from examinations applies (Corona FAQ). For the examination procedures in the MIN faculty, this means that students can still withdraw within the three days after the registration and deregistration deadline. The student has to inform the Academic Office and - in the case of oral exams, additionally the examiners. The resignation should take place before the start of the examination, the reason should be immediately credible. The decision about the resignation is made by the examination board. An examination is assessed with the mark 'nicht ausreichend' (not sufficient – 5.0) if the candidate misses an examination without valid reason.
